MORE MUSINGS

by Kelley Smith

All Saints' Day is this Wednesday, November 1, and it is a holy day of obligation. We will have two liturgies to celebrate this solemnity, with Masses at 7:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. On this day, we remember all the saints known and unknown to us who enjoy the glory of heaven. Come reflect on how to live a life of holiness and how to attain happiness now and eternally. Let us all strive to be numbered among the saints in heaven!

The next day, November 2, is All Souls' Day, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Mass is at 7:00 a.m. It is our custom in the Catholic church to pray for the dead. And because we are baptized into Christ, we face death believing that we are not alone. We believe that all the souls of the faithfully departed are united forever with Christ through his Resurrection. New and eternal life in paradise is theirs.

Now because most of our parishioners will be unable to attend Mass on All Souls', all the Masses on November 4-5 are Memorial Masses for the Deceased of our parish. Those who have died and had funeral services conducted within our parish this past year will be honored with the lighting of a candle at each Mass. This has become a very meaningful tradition to our parish family. The sacredness of a person's life and their passing not only means so very much to the person's family, but to our faith community as well.

One of the Corporal Acts of Mercy is to bury the dead. The USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) website explains, "Funerals give us the opportunity to grieve and show support during difficult times. Through our prayers and actions during these times, we show our respect for life, which is always a gift from God, and comfort to those who mourn." May we come together to show our love and support for these families in our parish, that they are assured that we will remember their loved ones around the table of the Lord.
